

NORTHERN TRIBUNE.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 15, 1883.

THE CITY.

The W. L. Frost has made the last trip of the season. Look out for winter.

Be sure and read what "Silver" has to say from Wolverine. He's a trump, if not a joker.

Dan. N. McLeod has left the Benton in good hands, and he is still on deck as one of the Cheboygan men who mean business.

The sheriff is complaining of hard times, no prisoners to board. Too bad when so many worthy ones are doing around loose.

When a great man dies the cubs who have snapped at his heels find comfort in the scripture, "For a living dog is better than a dead lion."

Dave Moloney thinks there are some funny things happening on the telephone wires. Daye had better keep dark, there is a man looking for him.

Look out for a booming advertisement of A. W. Westgate & Sons in this issue. This firm is squaring itself for prices to suit the times, and is as firm as the firmest.

Wm. E. Ross is a safe, energetic, gilt-edged business man, who has everything in his line at the most advantageous prices. His collection is a feature of the season.

"Give me neither poverty or riches," certainly not poverty, for you can afford to pay for it, if yet need it, and as for riches, they always give away the person they stick to.

Rozelle Rose, of the Petoskey Democrat called He is as clever as ever, makes a good paper, and says that Wooster at the depot is a perfect gentleman, and we believe him.

A. L. Fexer is out with holiday attractions. The silverware is an especial fine selection. The children's sets are of the latest designs. The show cases are loud witnesses of the several novelties.

H. M. Ogden, who recently sold his interest in the Mattoon mill property, will, as soon as he can arrange business matters, with his family depart for Westfield N. Y., his former home. We are sorry to lose them.

Mrs. Hamilton's advertisement is in another column. She is up with the times, and has reduced her prices to cost. There can be no better bargains than those offered, our lady readers will find it to their advantage to call.

Wixson has his art rooms fitted up in the Backus block. They are neat as can be, and delightfully comfortable. He is ready to receive orders in any size from the vignette to the cabinet. His pictures are of the best and prized highly. Give him a call.

The Episcopal church is fortunate in getting a Rector so soon, one they have known in the pulpit, out of the pulpit, and in whom they can confide at once. Rev. J. M. Curtis is equally fortunate in securing the Rectorship of St. James, a church that cuts as clean and as wide a swath as any church in Cheboygan.

The O'Donnell case is town talk. Some think the kindly offices of our government will save the doomed man, others see no hope. The leading Democrats of this town have got a tenderness for Sam. Randall. They think he is the best selection for chairman of appropriations. The peace of the wigwam is not assured.

Rev. Petroleum V. Nasby (D. R. Locke), will travel through the southern states during the fall and winter for the purpose of writing a series of letters to his paper, the Toledo Blade, his impressions of the great south. The million readers of the Blade who have read "Nasby in Exile" (Nasby's Letters from Europe.) will appreciate how the subject will be handled. Every body is invited to send for a specimen copy. see advertisement in another column.

We regret that John F. Moloney has been driven to the wall. He assigned Thursday. His liabilities are $3,700, his assets will about cover this figure. When an Irishman with as much grit, get up, ability and honesty as Moloney has to go under, it is after he has done the best he could. Mr. Moloney has the sympathy of the entire community, and we wish him success, for any one knows a true Irishman will get up just one time more than he goes down.

Chicago has been selected for the next National Republican convention. It was remarkable that in this preference there was neither spite nor clique influence discernable. The Republican party was never more united. It has struck down disaffection with a strong hand. It is now in health, and strong, and in Chicago the next President and Vice President of this republic will be named as sure as June in 1884 will come. The leading Republicans here consider it the overshadowing influence of the great west in our politics. Cheboygan will be heard from in the convention.
